Thanksgiving Service at Peace:
Giving Thanks for the People of God
Wednesday 23, 2011
7:00 p.m.

Bless the Lord, O my soul,
And do not forget all his benefits—
Who forgives all your iniquity,
Who heals all your diseases,
Who redeems your life from the pit,
Who crowns you with steadfast love and mercy,
Who satisfies you with good as long as you live
So that your youth is renewed like the eagle’s.

The psalmist’s all-encompassing list is a good example of all the gifts of God we should gratefully acknowledge. Personalize this ancient prayer by pondering your own experiences of God’s forgiveness, healing, redemption, love, mercy and satisfaction of your own needs.

Pie Social

There will be a pie social after the service. Bring your favorite pie or ice cream to share! All are invited.
My wife recently went to the AFLC's Summer Institute of Theology at our Seminary and took a class on Worship. The following is her paper on “What is Worship”. I asked her if I could share this with you as a congregation. I was blessed by it and I trust you will be too. Pastor Curt

TRUE WORSHIP AS AN ENCOUNTER WITH GOD—By Jane Emerson

What is worship and how does it manifest itself? What style are we to use to call down an encounter with God? Is worship meditative or explo- sive? Is it quiet or loud? Is it emotional or psychological? Is it imaginary or real?

When the Holy Spirit came down at Pentecost the Bible says and “the place where they were meeting was shaken. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and spoke the word of God boldly.” Were they worshiping?

In the story of Elijah, when Elijah prayed and God sent lightening from the sky and burned up Elijah’s sacrifice, causing all the people to cry out, “Elijah's God is God”, was that worship?

Churches throughout the ages have worked at it, tried to develop it, tried to identify it but how do you put into words an encounter with a Holy God that leads to worship?

Most pastors have discovered it and go into ministry to lead others to discover the power of an encounter with God. But worship leaders often become frustrated, because sometimes the only great awakening they witness is that which happens when the service ends.” Can preachers today invoke the worship of God by using a set form of liturgy, praying the right prayers or lifting up objects of worship? How can worship leaders expect to lead God’s people to a deep encounter with God if they first, have not taken the time to encounter God themselves and secondly, set their mind on the leading of the Holy Spirit? So often worship leaders, who present worship week after week will easily fall into the trap of presenting the same order, either liturgical or contemporary and by doing so relegate the worship of God to a meaningless activity before preaching. Yet Pastors and worship leaders are given this responsibility to lead us all in worship, and they need to recognize the vitality of that time of the service!

How pastors prepare themselves and the service, how singing is led and special music presented, how prayers are articulated, how emotions are engaged, how creativity is encouraged, how visitors are included—how pastors carry out these mundane, common-as-sawdust responsibilities can make a difference in the degree and intensity of the fire come from on high.

I am coming to a conclusion that worship is not something done casually, it takes preparation, planning and practice for the soul to be led into the presence of God in worship. Yes, it is possible to have a spontaneous encounter with God but for the most of us we need to be brought into the spirit of worship, we need someone to lead both our minds and hearts to worship. Howard Stevenson has led worship for the Fullerton Evangelical Free Church since 1980 (at the time that Chuck Swindoll was the Pastor). He shares;

“Some people think that in a church like ours,” says Howard, “with a nationally recognized communicator in the pulpit, worship means only a couple of stanzas of a hymn and then getting out of the way to turn Chuck loose. But we spend twenty-five to thirty minutes in worship prior to the sermon. I’m sure some people consider this as mere warm-up to the main event. But those people don’t understand the heart of Chuck Swindoll. As Chuck has made clear many times, great preaching emerges out of great worship. When people have experienced the wonder and awe and majesty of worship, they’re prepared to hear God’s Word.”

Many seminaries don’t even teach courses on worship and the leading of a congregation into worship. I don’t know if that is true about the AFLTS but churches today have woefully neglected this preparation and planning and rushed headlong into the sermon without really worshiping.

Michael J. Quicke in his book, “Preaching as Worship” speaks of his mentor, Robert Webber, author of the book, “Worship is a Verb” (worship)

Reading his Worship is a Verb set me alight in several ways. His diagnosis that much worship is in trouble today struck home. “Traditional worship seems over-intellectualized, dry and something apart from where we live. And contemporary worship is too focused on ‘my experience. His own experiences of shallow evangelical worship resonated with me as he identified four disturbing issues:

1. Too much of our worship is dominated by the pastor;
2. The congregation is little more than an audience;
3. ‘Free worship’ is not necessarily free;
4. The mystery is gone.

I heard his plea to see worship as the primary work of the church… God’s mighty deeds of salvation are the cause of worship that tells out and acts the Christ event. Worship is meeting with God on His terms and for His purposes, and it sounds out the triumphant claim: Christ has overcome the powers of evil. Be at peace. Yet, tragically, this message of God’s mighty deeds goes missing”.

I was intrigued with his finding that “the mystery is gone”. Much has been written that explains that our worship has become too human. Our current worship has been so “dumbed down” that it lacks any spiritual vitality. In John 4:24, it tells us we are to “worship in Spirit and in truth”. What has happened to our enthusiasm in worship? Enthusiasm originally meant inspiration or possession by the presence of God. Has our worship taken on the form of being possessed of God? In a Barna poll I recently read, the question was asked “how often do church worship services bring you into the presence of God?” He reported 61% said “rarely” or “never”. There is no doubt that worship has ceased to bring the average layperson, sitting in their pews into the presence of God.

We have contemporized the services, blended them and sometimes just given up on worship all together and have made our services “Lecture Hall worship”, all of which have caused us to lose the mystery of God.

“We call for public worship that sings, preaches and enacts God’s story…. Thus we call evangelicals to turn away from forms of worship that focus on God as a mere object of the intellect, or that asserts ‘the self’ as the source of worship. Such worship has resulted in lecture oriented, music driven, performance centered and program controlled models that do not adequately proclaim God’s cosmic redemption. Therefore, we call evangelicals to recover the historic substance of worship of Word and Table and to attend to the Christian year, which marks time according to God’s saving acts”.

In a worship setting, we need to hear the gracious and merciful acts of God and be reminded of the work He is doing in our lives. Psalm 103:1-2. “Bless the Lord, O my soul: and all that is within me, bless His holy name. Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all His benefits”.

At our deepest level, we were created for worship. But this instinct has gone awry. Jonathan Edwards spoke of religious affections—that core of our being that orients our mind, will, and emotions toward an object. Sin has caused our affections to stray, propelling us to worship relationships, achievement, work—everything but God.

Worship is an encounter with God, it is something that we need to be led into and it is truly a mystery that God would want to encounter us or be with us but His word tells us just that; “but you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, A PEOPLE BELONGING TO GOD, that you may declare the praises of Him (worship) who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light”. 1 Peter 2:9.

Women, come and join us as we spend some time in God’s Word, learning and growing together. Hope to see you there!
Time to start up Secret Sisters again! If you have not revealed your SS from last year, DO SO NOW!!!! P.S. We missed you at the party!! Please pick up and fill out your SS questionnaire at the back of church to be a part of this years SS. This is a great opportunity to get to know and encourage each other! We are very excited about this program! This is a Secret….. Please don’t reveal who your sister is, or tell others. There are a few simple rules to make sure all of our sisters enjoy this experience! We don’t want anyone to feel bad or get hurt doing this, so it is very important to keep that in mind! This is a way for us to let Jesus’ love shine!

You need to send you SS something each month, post card, note of encouragement, small gift, etc…..(website I found very helpful was www.ehow.com- they have all kinds of wonderful card or gift ideas for your SS) You can send this in the mail or place it on the SS table in back of church.

This is to remain a secret from Nov. 1 -- Oct 1 (please mark your calendars’ now to be at the SS reveal party on OCT. 20th 2012!!!!!)
It is your responsibility to keep your coordinator notified of any changes. Please contact Rebekah Rowan (614)321-4422 or send an email to becky-love2bamom@yahoo.com. If any unexpected event happens and you are unable to fulfill your SS duties or you feel the need to drop out, you are responsible for letting your coordinator know!

Please note:
If your SS fails to follow the rules and communicate with you at the minimum of once a month, she will be removed from the swap. Contact Rebekah Rowan right away.
There is no monetary limit to what you can spend on your SS. Keep in mind, however, that it is not the size of the gift but the thought that you are reaching out to brighten someone’s day. Don’t be afraid to send something unique! It is always fun to receive a one of a kind gift. Be sneaky! Have FUN! Remember to look over your SS questionnaire and mark important date that should be acknowledged, i.e. birthdays, anniversaries, etc. Please have fun with your new SS in any way that you can to make her smile or encourage her through these next 11 months. Most importantly, lift each other up in prayer before the Lord!
If you have any questions, don’t ever hesitate to contact me.

Dear Friends In Christ:
I wish to thank everyone for their phone calls, cards and prayers during my mother’s illness and after her death. Sometimes we have a tendency to take for granted these friendships but never again. It means so much to see the love pour out when we are in need. Thank you for the honor of being a member of this church and to calling all of you my friends.
God bless all of you,
Betty Bruce
Men’s Breakfast And Bible Study
November 12th & 26th

The Bible Study is based around Charles Swindoll’s book titled, “So You Want to be Like Christ?” Swindoll’s book offers practical ways with Biblical texts to exercise your faith so you can draw closer to God. We will study and discuss questions about the “Eight Essentials to Get You There”. The Eight Essentials include: Intimacy, Simplicity, Silence and Solitude, Surrender, Prayer, Humility, Self-Control and Sacrifice. Copies of the book are free for the asking. We look forward to spending time together in God’s Word. All men are invited for a great time of food and fellowship around the Word of God.

FOOD PANTRY ACQUISITIONS:
The acquisition of the Food Pantry located at 360 West Waterloo Street Canal Winchester, Ohio is almost complete. The official transition will occur November 17, 2011 at 7:00 p.m. at the Community Center and you, your organization and your church are invited to attend. During the month of December, we will prepare the parcel with any needed renovations and it’s anticipated the move will right after the first on the year. If you can provide assistance with renovations (painting, etc.) or with the actual move to the new food pantry building, please let Penny Miller know.

The Canal Winchester Food Pantry has been serving our community for decades and the needs of our neighbors continue to increase. In the last twelve months, 1,240 individuals received assistance from the pantry. Currently averages of 50 families are seeking food each and every week. As the needs of our community grow, so must the Pantry and as a result, it seemed logical for Human Services to accept this challenge as the Food Pantry is located.

COMMUNITY HOLIDAY CONCERT: The Second Annual Community Concert will be Sunday, December 4th, at 2:00 p.m., at the Old Middle School Auditorium, located at the corner of Washington and Columbus Streets. We need your gift of music! Last year Human Service Members were pleased to enjoy a variety of musical selections. If you have talent to share, please notify Teresa Gore at her e-mail (tgore3799@wowway.com)

Canal Winchester Human Services again this year is hoping that churches and organizations will support the annual effort. Letters to last year’s givers have just been mailed. Human Services has started organizing the Adopt A Family, and hopes individuals, churches and organizations will participate in making this Christmas a blessed one for families in need.

Peace Lutheran Council Jo Binkley in charge of Social Concerns Ministry is planning the Hat & Mitten Christmas Tree at Peace Lutheran Church. The usual request for donations of hats, gloves, mittens, gloves and scarf’s are needed. Envelopes will be on the tree for Adopt A Family.

SHUT IN FRUIT & CANDY CHRISTMAS BAGS. Human Services will not be providing the goodie bags for shut ins this year. It is suggested that churches provide this service to shut ins.

CARE PACKAGES FOR MEMBERS AWAY FROM HOME

If you have a family member who is away from home at college, for work or other reasons, and you would them to receive care packages from the church for Christmas, Easter and other occasions, please give the address to the church office (secretary@peacecw.org; 837-6689) or to Jo Binkley (833-1061).
Planning for the Annual Sunday School Christmas Program has begun! This year we'll be tuning in to "H.A.L.O. - On the Air!" to hear God's "host with the most" bring us good news of great joy! There are parts planned for all Sunday School students through 8th grade, and as always, there are parts for older - teens and adults, and younger - babies and toddlers, and other children who are not a part of Sunday School, but would like to join us. The program will be held on Sunday, December 11 during the 10:30 a.m. service. Practices will be Saturday mornings - Nov. 26, Dec. 3, and Dec. 10 and during the Sunday School hour on those weeks. Please contact Michelle or Earl Staffan, Greg Leitch, or the church office if you would like to participate! All teens and adults participating in the program will meet on Sunday, November 20 during the Sunday School hour, from 9:15-10:15 for a program read-through. We will meet in the church basement fellowship hall.

We will be decorating the Church for Christmas on Sunday, November 27, after a chili lunch which will be served at the PCC following the 10:30 service. This will be a great time of fellowship as we share a delicious meal and then work together to beautify our sanctuary for the Christmas season. So mark your calendar for this special event! If you have any questions, please contact Bonnie Richardson. (833-4253)

The Kairos Prison Ministry is collecting yarn; (no amount too small) full or partial skeins and as much batting or stuffing as people can accumulate. The inmates at Hocking Valley Correctional Institute have a knitting and crocheting club that makes these cute stuffed animals, receiving blankets, and pillows, and then give them to the Salvation Army of Hocking county. They then give them out for the holidays to the local families. For some children, it may be their only gift for Christmas.
I was more encouraged by our work in Russia on this trip than any other trip over the past decade. Before this mission trip my vision for our work in Russia was beginning to fade, and I was seeking GOD’S direction for the work there, and the LORD answered. On the first day after arriving in Moscow Pastor Mark Benz and myself met with Pastor Ivan Borichevskiy, who is the leader of the Russian Church of Christians of Evangelical faith. Their church is in the 2nd year of a 10 year program to bring Bibles and the message of the Gospel to every town and village in Russia that doesn’t have a Bible or church in it. He was very excited about this project and very glad to be able to work together with us on it. They are hoping to send out up to 30 teams of committed Russian believers who will each give one year to bring the Gospel and Bibles to these towns and villages. They are in need of about 100,000 Bibles for this project, and we were grateful that we could give him 750 Bibles for this project for this year. JESUS said that His Gospel would be spread to all nations before His return. My prayer is that by GOD’S grace through our ministry that we will be able to help the Russian believers fulfill this project.

BIBLE CAMPS 2011
Our first Bible Camp was held close to Penza at a beautiful setting on a lake. The LORD greatly blessed the camp- there were about 80 campers with a few others joining us for the evening services. We had beautiful weather and lots of swimming and other fun activities, but the center of the camp was our worship and study times together. During my morning Bible Studies with them we focused on JESUS mission and ours, from Matthew 9 and 10, and in the evening I shared a number of passages that focused on how we should live as believers as we recognize the reality of the LORD’S soon return to our world. Life is short, the LORD’S return is near and we need to do what we can for His Kingdom and the lost people in our world. Pastor Mark shared on relationships with GOD and others and redemption through CHRIST. Many of the Russian pastors who came to the camp shared with me just how thankful they are for this camp, and how GOD is using this Bible Camp to bring revival to their congregations and help their congregations to grow. I praise the LORD for the blessing that He has given to me to be able to have a small part in blessing His people in Russia.
